- E-visas issued by Iran include an "Issue Details or Grant Details" field.
- If this section contains all the details such as the visa type, issue date, duration of stay, start and end dates, it means that the visa has been approved. The document also includes a "VISA NO" field that proves the existence of the visa.
- Before traveling, the start and end dates of the visa must be checked and all information in the e-visa must be matched exactly with the passport.

- The document, which is shown as an example, is only for visa application purposes and does not grant direct travel rights.
- It does not contain a start or end date.
- Since this is not a visa, there is no "VISA NO" field on it.
- If the passenger applies for a flight with this document, the QR code on it must be scanned. If the information that the visa is approved (Application status: Issued) can be reached when the QR code is scanned, the passenger can be accepted to the flight. However, if the visa is not approved, the passenger should not be accepted to the flight.

Refugee passport holders can travel to Iran with a valid e-visa. However, the following points must be observed:

- ✓ All information on the visa must exactly match the passport.
- ✓ The nationality field must include the original nationality of the passenger as stated in the passport.
- ✓ The start and end dates of the visa must be checked carefully.

We didn't start aviation in Türkiye but we transformed it!
