Reason for Issue

To advise all airports that a LCB tagging trial will be taking place from all flights departing BER, BSL, and LYS and therefore, you may see these tags at your airport.

Details

This trial will start at 0800 (L) on 1st April and will run for 6 weeks, finishing at 2300 (L) on 12th May. This will be on all departing flights from BER, BSL, and LYS.

Please see below an image of the LCB tag.

All S1, S2, and easyJet plus customers on flights departing from BER, BSL, and LYS are to have their LCB tagged by Ground Crew.

If one of the tags is present on a bag in an airport not included in the trial, please still complete your usual checks whilst adhering to the cabin baggage standards.

This is to emphasise this trial does not change the checks you do at the boarding gate on customers bags.
