Reason for Issue

To advise all airports that a LCB tagging trial is currently taking place from all flights departing BFS, LTN, and PMI, and therefore, you may see these tags at your airport.

Details

This trial will take place on all departing flights from BFS, LTN, and PMI until Tuesday 31st December 2024.

Please see below an image of the LCB tag.

All S1, S2 and easyJet plus customers on flights departing from BFS, LTN and PMI are to have their LCB tagged by Ground Crew

If one of the tags is present on a bag in an airport not included in the trial, please still complete your usual checks whilst sticking to the cabin baggage standards.

If the customer questions this, explain that this is a trial from those airports only, and regular checks will still take place.

This is to emphasise this trial does not change the checks you do at the boarding gate on customers bags.
