

The Safety Map

Purpose

Safety as the ability to create and maintain the conditions for safe and effective operations - as organisations, leaders/ managers and individuals.

Be Ready.

Defining and living by the values that creates the trust needed to support positive safety conversations.

Mindset

Having enough competent people who are operationally ready and fit for duty.

People

Ensuring safe aircraft products that are supported by the right tools, equipment and infrastructure

Resources

Stay Safe

Compliance

Encouraging people to do things right by following the relevant rules, procedures and practices.

Risks

Effectively identifying and mitigating risks effectively as part of a resilient management system.

Learning

Talk openly about safety and have a positive approach to learning and solving problems.

