CANADA ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Please find below entry requirements to Canada. Requirements are different for the following categories of passengers:

1. Canadian Citizens;
2. Canadian Permanent Residents;
3. Foreign nationals.

Canadian Citizens

Canadian Citizens can only travel to Canada with a passport valid on the date of arrival and in original (for no reason copies and/or pictures can be accepted).

In case of a lost or stolen passport, the Embassy of Canada, through the consulate, will issue for its Citizens an "Emergency Travel Document" (ETD) that has the following characteristics:

- Very short validity;
- Single use only.

Citizenship card/Certificate are not valid documents to enter Canada

Dual Canadian citizens who are not in possession of a valid Canadian passport and whose second citizenship is from an ETA-required country, can apply for a Special Authorization associated to their visa-exempt passport.

Eligible Dual Canadian Citizens may apply up to ten (10) days in advance of their planned travel to Canada. Once approved the Special Authorization will be valid for a single entry. It is valid for four (4) days from the applicant's stated date of travel to Canada.

Permanent residents

Canadian Permanent Residents –(PR) must show one of the following documents:

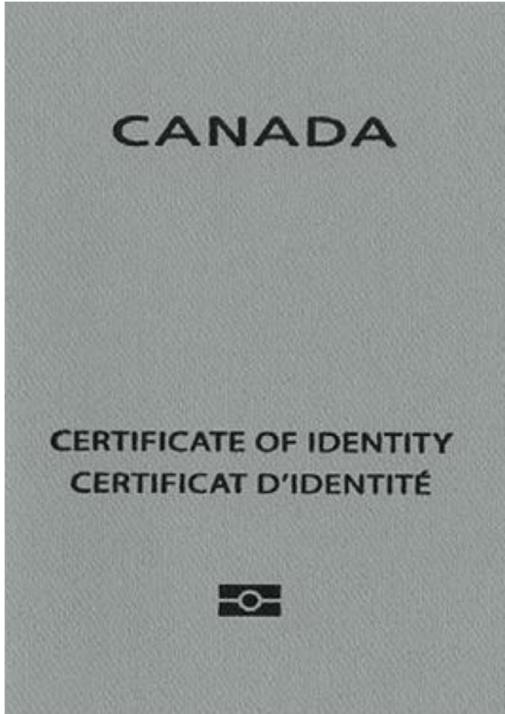

1. Valid and original foreign passport and a valid and original Canadian PR card.
Personal data of the Canadian PR card must match with passport data.

2. Valid and original foreign passport with a Permanent Resident Travel Document (PRTD) which is a sticker attached on a passport page similar to a visa confirming the status of Permanent resident

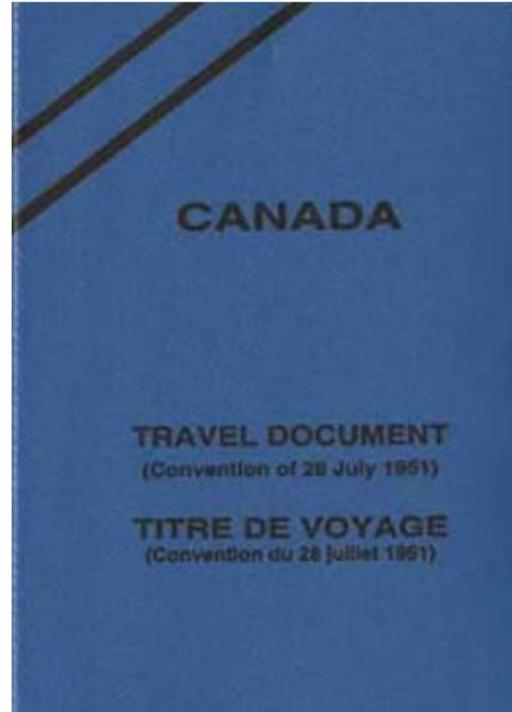

3. Canadian Certificate of Identity

and a valid PR card/PRTD

Canadian Refugee Travel Document
